

CLAN MacLEOD SOCIETIES of CANADA

PRESIDENT and PAST PRESIDENTS, to 2017

The Clan MacLeod Societies of Canada (“CMSC”) is an umbrella organizations for the local Clan MacLeod societies across Canada.

In about 1974, Arthur MacLeod Rogers travelled across Canada and visited local Clan MacLeod Societies or simply phoned up MacLeods in the local phone books, with a view to encouraging Clan MacLeod membership. In 1975, a National body was formed, under the name Clan MacLeod Societies of Canada (CMSC), with Arthur serving as the first President (1975–1984?). His son, Norman, and grandson, Brian, also served on National Council. All three were lawyers!

In addition to the usual executive officers, there are a Genealogist, a Newsletter Editor a Youth Co-ordinator and a Webmaster.

Local societies are created based on local memberships and interest. Interested folks can also join directly through the National Society (on-line) if there is no local society in their area. As of 2017, there are 8 local societies, namely:

Ottawa, ON,	Glengarry, ON,	Central Ontario,
Manitoba,	Alberta South,	BC Interior,
Vancouver	Vancouver Island.

Concurrent with holding the Office of President, the CMSC President also serves on the Executive of the Associated Clan MacLeod Societies, the umbrella organization for the 10 national societies around the world, namely:

Australia	Canada	England	France
Germany	New Zealand	Scotland	South Africa
Switzerland	USA
